S I R,

In submitting herewith for favor of obtaining Government sanction and transmission to the Comptroller for audit the travelling allowance bill amounting to R^{s} 10 of Mahamed Khasim, Octroi peon of the Chitaldrug municipality for the month of September 1911 (as the bill relates to the journey performed beyond the District) I have the honor to state that the peon had been sent to Bangalore for bringing the mango plants required for the municipal garden at Chitaldrug. The actual expenses of the journey performed by the peon had been included in the bill got up in connection with the purchase of mango plants. But the Comptroller has disallowed the above amount of R^{s} 10 on the ground that the peon being a permanent employee, his travelling allowance should have been claimed on the prescribed travelling allowance bill form and drawn after preaudit. Hence the preparation of the enclosed bill.

I have the honor to be,
S I R,
Your most obedient servant,

President, District Board,
Chitaldrug District.
